Compton Community College District's Application Deadline for the Citizens' Bond Oversight Committee is November 18

The Compton Community College District (CCCD) is reminding all community members who are interested in serving on the Citizens' Bond Oversight Committee to submit their applications for consideration by November 18, 2011 at 4:30 p.m. Applications are still available at www.district.compton.edu or by calling 310-900-1600, Ext. 2000. Upon selection, Citizens' Bond Oversight Committee members serve a term of two years and do not receive any compensation or benefits for their service. The Citizens' Bond Oversight Committee will meet on a quarterly basis beginning in January 2012.

Qualifications for Membership

The Citizens' Bond Oversight Committee consists of seven members, including at least one representative from each of the following categories:

1. A member active in a business organization representing the business community located within the district;
2. A member who is a resident of the district and active in a senior citizen's organization;
3. A member who is a resident of the district and active in a bona fide taxpayer's organization;
4. A member enrolled as a student at the El Camino College Compton Educational Center and active in a campus group; and
5. A member active in an organization supporting the District such as the foundation.

To qualify for appointment, a member must meet the criteria listed in one of the above categories. A member cannot be an employee, official, contractor, consultant, or vendor of the Compton Community College District. Elected officials are also disqualified from service on the committee.

As outlined in Education Code Section 15278, the District Citizen's Bond Oversight Committee informs the public concerning the District's expenditure of revenues received from the sale of bonds authorized by the voters. More information on the role of the committee, as well as an application, can be found by visiting:
